Our sol-dier boys, dear sol-dier boys, From good old U. S. A. You've got the pep to keep in step when fight-ing far a-way. Oh, sol-dier boys, dear sol-dier boys, Our cause is right and just, Old Kai-ser Bill will feel quite ill, When tak-ing Yan-kee dust, checks of ro-sy red, You've got the vim for us to win, And keep our flag a-head, point will soon be won, In Ger-man lines we'll carve the signs, Of Yan-kee work well done.

With Our

VOICE

There's a land with no greater name, Nowhere else that's purer and more.

When the bells of the town and the your life calls for me, let me see. When you stand by the land that and let just to keep it for the old land the past be happy old the

land the past be happy old the

land the past be happy old the

land the past be happy old the

Moderato

There's a boy that is somewhere in France,
I don't know his name, but I know his face.

He's a boy that is somewhere in France,
I don't know his name, but I know his face.

He's a boy that is somewhere in France,
I don't know his name, but I know his face.

He's a boy that is somewhere in France,
I don't know his name, but I know his face.

He's a boy that is somewhere in France,
I don't know his name, but I know his face.

Each pretty one we see has a face
as the time we look on Each pretty one has a way of looking at you that makes you stare

Each pretty one we see has a face
as the time we look on Each pretty one has a way of
looking at you that makes you stare
